

Hello again students of Southall school.

It's me your Prime minister you will be hearing from me a lot from me for a while just until we are all reunited once again.

you know to pass the time you could play some online games (parents permission to go online) or play some family games.

the truth is I miss school I miss hanging with my friends and having the teachers help mostly with the work they throw at us. But most of all having laguths with all the people i care about macking them smile and have fun and to show them that not everthing is bad .

so once again STAY HOME STAY SAFE PROTECT THE N.H.S

from your Prime Minister |Chloe Himckman|
